

FlyAway Employee Pass Program Guidelines & Rules

Under the FlyAway Employee Pass Program, Los Angeles World Airports (LAWA) offers a monthly pass for purchase at $120 a month for employees that would like to commute using the FlyAway service. Employees requesting to purchase an employee pass must have a valid LAX badge to participate and as of March 1, 2022, LAWA is requiring all employees purchasing a pass, complete and submit an employee pass application online.

In addition, employees participating in the FlyAway Employee Pass Program are to follow the guidelines and rules of riding the FlyAway.

- Priority Boarding – employees are not entitled to priority boarding. The FlyAway operates as a “first come, first serve” basis. There is no privilege that an employee pass holder receive priority boarding.
- Pass Sharing – employees are not allowed to share, copy, or distribute their employee pass to anyone under any circumstances. If an employee pass is found to be used by any other person other than the authorized personnel, the employee(s) shall be subject to removal of the FlyAway Employee Pass Program.
- Badge Identification – employees are required to show their badge with their employee pass at every boarding. Failure to have either the pass or a badge may result in an employee purchasing a full fare ticket of $9.75 each way they need to travel.
- Lost or Stolen Passes – employees are required to report a stolen or lost pass to a ticket agent. FlyAway is not responsible for reimbursement or reissuance of a lost/stolen pass.
